

What is the total rental numbers of each classified films category for family?

The graph shows the total rent for each family film category.

It shows that the highest rent for Family category by 1196 and the category after Family is Animation by 1166.

However, the lowest rent for Music which is by 803 while the remaining categories like around 945.

Families shows they are most like to rent in Family films more than other categories.

What is the total orders for two stores per each month for all years?

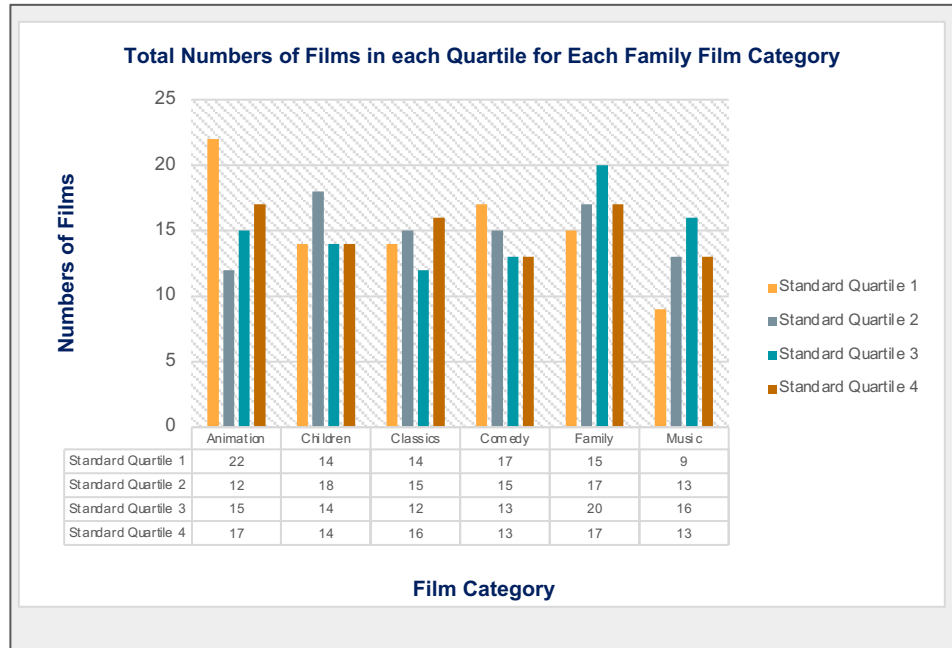

The graph shows the total rental orders for two stores per month for year 2005 & 2006.

Store 2 shows the highest total rental orders in July 2005 by 3367 while the lowest total rental orders in February 2006 by 97 orders.

For store 1, it shows the highest total orders by 3342 in July 2005 while in January 2006 it shows the lowest total orders by 85.

At the end, store 2 shows high total rental orders over the months in 2005 & 2006 than store1.

What is the total numbers of films in each quartile for each family film category based on the rental duration?

The graph shows the total numbers of films in each quartile for each family category based on the rental duration.

The highest films number in first quartile is for Animation category which is by 22 and the lowest total numbers in that quartile is for Music category which is by 9.

For the second quartile, Children category shows the highest number by 18 and the one followed is Family category by 17, and the lowest is Animation category by 12.

Likewise, the other quartiles can be compared with all categories.

Who are the top 10 with highest payment in monthly basis in 2007?

The graph shows the top 10 customers who made high payment per month in 2007.

In April 2007, the highest payment was $22.95 made by Eleanor and followed by by Clare Irby in the same month by $93.82.